BOASTINGS OF KAISER WHEN HE WAS WINNING

London, Nov. 15.—British newspapers give prominence to some of the kaiser's utterances during the war.

In 1916 he said:

"Before the leaves fall from the trees, we shall be back in the dear fatherland. Exterminate first the treacherous French and walk over Gen. French's contemptible little army."

"You my troops, are my garrison, and can dictate peace to my enemies."

"Up and at the foes."

"God's (Gott's) goodness will guide the German people through battle to victory—to the goal appointed for the German people by providence. I have drawn the sword which, without victory and without honor I can not sheath. To the dust with all the enemies of Germany! Amen."

In 1915 he said:

"Our brave soldiers have shown themselves invincible in battle against nearly the whole world. The war drama, is now coming to its close."

He also said:

"America had better look out after the war. I shall stand no nonsense from the Americans."

"My destructive sword has crushed the Russians. In a short while I will announce new victories. In a just cause I am ready to force myself to be cruel."

In 1916 he said:

"The world was prepared for anything but never for victory of the German fleet over the British. Fear will creep into the bones of the enemy. But west has been taken. What a magnificent success on the road to complete victory."

"With God's (Gott's) help, Germany is invincible in spite of the superior numbers of our enemies, and every day confirms this anew. The foe is defending his native soil foot by foot. This is the resistance of despair, but it must be broken. He has prepared his coup, and now he must step it."

"All Germany contemplates with pride her brave sons whose 'deeds, with God's (Gott's) help, will be a land mark on the road to final victory."

In 1917 he said:

"If the enemy does not want peace then we must bring peace by battering in with the front fist and shining sword the doors of those who will not have peace. Victory in the coming year will again be on our side and that of our allies."

FIRE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN DESTROYS A DAYTON FACTORY

Davion, Nov. 16.—Fire of an undetermined origin which broke out about 9:30 o'clock last night, practically destroyed the plant of the Monarch Engineering company, First and Canal streets, and caused a loss estimated at $150,000. Insurance of about three-fourths the loss was carried.

The plant, a three-story brick, seemed to be a mass of flames inside when the first contingent of men arrived.

From the openings there poured dense volume of hot, black smoke, making the combat a very unequal one for a half hour or more. Slowly the firemen gained on the blaze and in about one and a half hours had the blaze under control. This however, was not accomplished until the loss on building and machinery had run into the thousands of dollars.

Total ..... $68,000,000,000

OUTPOSTS ENTER BRUSSELS.

Paris, Nov. 16.—(12:10 P.M.)—Belgian outposts entered Brussels this morning.

German cavalry occupied Brussels Aug. 20, 1914, the Belgian army retreating toward Antwerp, without engaging the enemy. The Germans issued a formal proclamation, taking over the city, and outlining what the inhabitants would be permitted to do.

The previous day many of the people had fled to Ghent. There were no hostile demonstrations against the army of occupation.

BRUTAL OFFICERS TO BE PLACED ON TRIAL

Paris, Nov. 16.—As a result of investigations made in Lille and region of the Department of the North, precise charges have been made out against German officers guilty of having ordered or of having themselves committed shocking crimes.

In the presence of evidence that has been revealed by a commission of inquiry, the under secretary of state at the ministry of justice, has ordered that criminal proceedings be instituted against the German officers in question. They will be tried by court-martial in their absence if the allies are unable to secure their arrest, but whatever sentence may be passed will remain valid.

GERMANY CRIES FOR AN EARLY PEACE PARLEY

Washington, Nov. 16.—While Germany continues its efforts to force an early peace conference, this government is giving serious thought to selection of peace delegates and final consideration of peace terms, along with current problems of reconstruction.

The whole subject of peace and reconstruction are closely interwoven in the government's considerations. It finds itself almost without a framework of reconstruction.

Hence, there is some disposition here to hasten the peace solution so that the reconstruction problem will be the more quickly clarified.

Germany has wirelessed another of her series of peace proposals for quick assembling of delegates for a change of armistice terms.

She pointed to the imminence of hunger as a reason for an early peace session and argued hardships would be caused by the provisions for returning Germans from Turkey.

This government is giving serious thought to the feeding of the central empires but does not propose to be hurried into a peace session by the Teuton pleads. In fact, the German notes are beginning to be regarded as a drug on the market, as evidenced by Secretary Lansing's notice to Germany that she must deal with all the allies, not alone with the United States.

Neither the White House or State Department has given any official expression concerning the peace conference. No time has been set and the government is steadfastly keeping its own council.

In addition to President Wilson, Secretary Lansing, Justice Brandeis and Colonel House, who are expected to attend the conclave, there must be military and naval delegates and the legal branches of the army and navy are likely to be invited for these representatives who may be supplemented by Admiral Sims and General Bliss, or General Pershing.

Versailles is a favorite place for the signing of peace treaties. Great Britain and the American colonies ratified their peace there September 3, 1783.

In Syria and Salicia, all forces shall be withdrawn west of the Bazaar by December 15. Demobilization shall immediately follow. The forces in Northern Syria and along the railway as far as Misiss shall surrender all their artillery, machine guns and ammunition by Nov. 15.

The question of administration of the area east and southeast of Taurus shall be taken into consideration. In Arabia the difficulty of communicating with Turkish commanders in the hinterland is being overcome.

HOLLAND MONARCHY IS THREATENED BY THE BOLSHEVIKI

Washington, Nov. 16.—Information reaching here from official sources indicated that the situation in Holland is causing grave apprehension and that the presence there of the former German emperor with members of his family and some of his strongest supporters may so inflame the people as to endanger that monarchy.

While it is true, it was pointed out, that the former kaiser is practically a prisoner, he is not the prisoner of any of his foes. It was suggested that the immediate fate of the ex-kaiser is of little moment compared with other affairs in Europe and it is confidently believed the effect of his presence upon an already disturbed state in the Netherlands is that he is the object of concern among allied statesmen.

Bolshevism apparently has taken root in Holland. Before the war the relations between the Dutch and German courts were very close and it is suggested that the Bolsheviks may see in the presence of the former ruler of Germany an excuse to precipitate an uprising against the queen.

PRESIDENT IS CERTAIN TO GO TO CONFERENCE

London, Nov. 16.—That President Wilson will attend the peace conference is a practical certainty, the Evening News asserts today.

SCHOOL CHILDREN AND PADRE CHEER ALLIED SOLDIERS WHO CAPTURE OSTEND AND LIBERATE TOWN FROM GERMANS

School children and teacher at Ostend cheering allied troops.

The youngsters in the photo were marching to the school classes, accompanied by the kindly padre, when the victorious allied troops swept into Ostend, driving the way Germans out. The way these tots are cheering and waving flags shows that they realized what the deliverance meant. The padre has forgotten his troubles for a while and is cheering and waving a flag.

MORE DETAILS OF THE TURKISH ARMISTICE TERMS

London, Nov. 16.—Further details of the Turkish armistice are contained in an official statement, as follows:

In order to secure compliance with the armistice terms, the Turkish government will carry out in Mesopotamia complete evacuation of the Mosul Vilayet, surrender of all artillery, ammunition and government supplies above normal needs for the town, the town of Mosul shall be cleared by Nov. 19, and British political officers shall be appointed to control the administration of the Gendarmerie.

In the Caucasus and northeastern Persia all territory shall be evacuated and Turkish forces shall be withdrawn behind the pre-war frontier.

In Syria and Salicia, all forces shall be withdrawn west of the Bazaar by December 15. Demobilization shall immediately follow. The forces in Northern Syria and along the railway as far as Misiss shall surrender all their artillery, machine guns and ammunition by Nov. 15.

FINAL TRIMMINGS OF WORLD WAR BEING PUT ON FASTER THAN EXPECTED

By William Phillip Simms.

Paris, Nov. 16.—The final trimmings of the war are being put on faster than anybody had hoped.

While the Germans are apparently making every effort to expedite their evacuation, workmen are busy at Versailles arranging the palace for the peace conference.

The villa of mirrors, where the principal sessions are scheduled to be held, is being decorated. It is proposed to lodge the delegates in the Grand Triton, which was built for Madame de Maintenon, Morganatic wife of Louis XIV.

Versailles is a favorite place for the signing of peace treaties. Great Britain and the American colonies ratified their peace there September 3, 1783.

On the same day Great Britain, France and Spain signed a treaty restoring certain colonial possessions to the French. Preliminaries of the truce ending the Franco-Prussian war were accepted there Feb. 26, 1871.

Public interest in the announcement by the newspapers that President Wilson is coming is shown by the almost daily rumors that he will arrive in a few days.

Numerous jubilees have been planned similar to the impromptu one following the signing of the armistice.

The first of these will be held Sunday in honor of the return of the "Lost Provinces." These will follow the reoccupation of Metz and Strasbourg.

The munition factories are buzzing on to provide work for the out-of-a-job multitude, but quick transformation of them for the manufacture of peace products is planned. The ministry of Armaments, which is setting the pace in this regard, probably will become the ministry of reconstruction.

The women and soldiers must have dictatorial powers if we are to avert misery in Germany," he concluded.

Colonel Innes warned against civil war.

Allow me to translate your offer into my own words. What you do is this—you ask me to dishonor my signature, to dishonor my country and to violate its obligations toward Serbia, and as a remuneration you offer me a part of the corpse of that which I am expected to kill. My country is too little to commit so great an infamy."

"The Minister showed the great danger Greece would run if she carried out her plan, because she would have opposed to her not only Bulgaria, but Germany," said M. Venizelos. "I replied that I was exceedingly sorry to hear that, but it was our duty to go to the assistance of our ally and we would carry out that duty.

"We may have a recount of the senatorial vote in Michigan," the statement said. "If so, the purpose of showing how our elections are manipulated by the money interests, nor will that cease with the election. If organized effort can accomplish something by informing the people, and hindering the rule of the dollar I think we will accomplish something."

"The German Minister then asked me if in going to Serbia's assistance I was looking forward to any benefits that might accrue to Greece. I replied, 'No.' He then said, 'but if Greece will remain neutral we are in a position to give her very great and substantial benefits.'

"I asked what were the benefits Germany would offer us. I put that question, knowing what the answer would be, but I wished it to come from him. He replied: 'Germany will give you Monastir and as much more of Serbia as you want.'

"I said to the Minister: 'You will

HIGH SCHOOL SING IS GREATLY ENJOYED

The patriotic sing given by the boys' and girls' chorus of the High School, under the direction of Miss Harriet McCarty, delighted a large audience.

The orchestra composed of Grace Lyle, Irene Parrot, Ralph Donges, violinists, Edwin Reutinger, drums, and Clarence Norris, pianist, gave an entertaining prelude.

Miss Helen Sayre told the story and history of the writing of "America," by Samuel F. Smith, and the audience joined with the chorus in singing it.

Six "Folk Songs" of the allied nations were sung by the chorus: "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," English; "All Through The Night," Welsh; "Annie Laurie," Scotch; "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," Irish; "Santa Lucia," Italian; "Swanee River," United States.

The story of the song was given by Wm. Moore. The Boys' Quartette, composed of Earl Hartscock, Robert Hurley, Alfred Casad and Heber Tullis, sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and brought out a hearty applause, responding with "When the War Is Over."

Miss Elizabeth Galloway pictured to the audience the beauty of and love we owe to the Service Flag, which was a beautiful tribute.

The freshman class sang four songs and Reva Spahr in a spicy manner pressed home the question "What kind of an American are you?" Ross Macaulay gave "Following the Boys Over There," and Louise Clark sang "God Be With Our Boys To-night."

The chorus gave two trench songs, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and "Dixie," the stories being told by Martha Wilson and Helen Barnes.

FETZ GROCERY AWNING FIRST TO COME DOWN

J. D. Steele is the first Xenia property owner to comply with the provisions of the new awning ordinance.

A fine of $50 is fixed for every day the provisions of the new ordinances regulating length and height of awnings and limiting sidewalk displays and obstructions by merchants, are disregarded after a reasonable length of time in which to comply with them has passed.

Following the memorial service, the regular business was transacted and officers were nominated. The Tent will make a contribution as an organization to the United War Work Campaign.

YELLOW SPRINGS MEN ARE INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Ralph Fulton and Paul Oster, Yellow Springs young men, are recovering from injuries sustained several days ago when a machine collided with the Oster car, in which they were riding on the Yellow Springs and Xenia pike, near Hyde's Corner.

Both men were thrown from the car, and Mr. Fulton received a dislocation of the collar bone, a severe gash on his head, and gash on the hand. Mr. Oster's injuries consisted chiefly of bruises. The accident occurred after dark while the Yellow Springs men were on their way to Hyde's Corner to get a car belonging to Archie Dean, which had met with an accident. They did not learn the names of the occupants of the car which collided with them.

The story of the song was given by Wm. Moore. The Boys' Quartette, composed of Earl Hartscock, Robert Hurley, Alfred Casad and Heber Tullis, sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and brought out a hearty applause, responding with "When the War Is Over."

WILL THERE BE ANOTHER LIBERTY LOAN?

The question has been asked frequently since the signing of the armistice: "Will there be another Liberty Loan?" Here's the answer.

Keeping order in Europe, now that the war is ended, is going to be the biggest police job this old world has ever known.

But it will have to be done.

For there are about 10,000,000 fellows scattered about the continent right now who have acquired the fighting habit these last five years. They were getting tired of the big game before it ended, but this doesn't mean that they would hesitate to mix up over their own little differences.

Take the Balkans, for instance. They have been a hot-bed of disturbance for years. The immediate pretext for this war developed there. And their old time animosities and jealousies have not been wiped out by their recent experiences. They are liable to flare out again at any moment.

Then there is the big question of Russia. There are millions of former serfs still drunk with the wine of new-found freedom. They have pillaged and plundered and killed without restraint for months. The whole nation is still seething. And order must be restored there before any permanent and rational government can be established.

And just what Turkey will have to offer the allies to the complication of affairs in general is yet to be developed.

There are some pretty long beats to be patrolled in this police job. Its a long, long way from Vladivostok to Petrograd. From Petrograd to Bagdad, and from the Holy Land to that near neighbor of hell, Berlin.

It looks like a big lot of Uncle Sam's soldier boys might be kept in Europe for many months to come. And they will have to be maintained adequately.

Inevitably it means another Liberty Loan at least. It may mean two.

TAKE DOWN AWNINGS

The following letter has been sent to all persons who are maintaining awnings or sidewalk displays in violation of the recently approved awning ordinances. This publication must be regarded as official notification to remove such obstructions to persons who may for any reason fail to receive a letter ordering the removal of such obstructions.

Dear Sir:

This is to notify all persons who are responsible for any conditions which are in violation of ordinances 38 and 39 which relate to the display of goods, merchandise, etc., on the sidewalks and to the erection and maintenance of awnings that they are liable to a fine of $50.00. Each day's continued violation is a separate offense.

The City Commission has instructed the City Manager to enforce the provisions of those ordinances which are now effective. The Manager whose duty it is will be very glad and willing to co-operate in every way possible to assist in bringing about the required changes.

The ordinances are now effective, but a reasonable length of time will be allowed to comply therewith. Of course you will appreciate the fact that the displays on the sidewalks can be removed at once, while the awnings can be conveniently removed within a week or two.

Your co-operation and willingness in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
KENYON RIDDLE,
City Manager.

NEED FOR Y. M. C. A. AND K. OF C. WORK IS GREATER NOW THAN IT WAS BEFORE

BY REV. HIBBARD J. JEWETT
Pastor of Trinity Methodist Church

The war is over—but we do not know when the boys will come home from the Camps and from across the seas. The war is over, but it may yet be lost. If the American people do not make possible the full purpose for which we entered the war, it will be lost, and the precious lives of our dead will have been in vain.

We want to help France and Belgium, and the other countries in the re-construction work, both in the rebuilding of the waste places of their lands and in being an inspiration in Christian service to their war-wearied souls.

While their hearts are open with gratitude to the United States for the gracious service rendered by its religious organizations during the war let us enter and do them lasting good.

It is the hope of the leaders of the Young Men's Christian Association to establish many of its secretaries in permanent service in the war-wracked countries of Europe, where the peoples' hearts are now so open to Christian-American influence.

What a fine proposal that is. Then, the government of the United States has put in the hands of the Association a great program of education for the American soldiers, so that every boy will have the opportunity of splendid equipment for the work which he wants to enter when he comes home.

Therefore we must help these organizations in this United War Work Campaign go over the top to victory.

Here we have an opportunity to make America's name blessed forever in the hearts of our boys and among the nations.

Let us do it, that the victories won by the boys who shed their blood there may not be lost.

TWO ADDITIONAL DIRECTORS OF THE H. & A. ARE ELECTED

At the recent annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hoover & Allison Company two additional directors were elected in the persons of W. C. Hallisy and George E. Hudson, thus making the Board consist of seven members instead of five as heretofore. This recognition of the new members is due to their long and faithful service in the interest of the Company as well as to the need of a larger board to consider and deal with the larger business the Company is constantly doing. To handle this intelligently new departments have been established and old ones more clearly defined.

In the new management Mr. Hallisy will be in full charge of the production and management of the mills here and elsewhere as well as the purchase of material and supplies for all. Mr. Hudson has been elected Treasurer and will be in charge of the finances and general office management. Mr. W. M. Ruthrauff will be in charge of sales and dispose of the Company's product, while the general management will continue as heretofore with the President.

The Company's prospects were never brighter and with its large and well established trade the opportunity for a larger business is most encouraging.

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists

THE COMING PEACE TABLE

Twenty-two nations will be represented on the Allied side of the Peace table, over which President Wilson may preside early in the coming new year.

It is difficult to realize that the alliance or association against the Central Powers had grown so great. Many of the nations which declared war on one or another of the Central Powers and their allies, are obscure, and the fact that they were actually in the war has been almost forgotten.

Under the rules which have existed at Peace conferences heretofore, each one of the twenty-two nations will have a single vote. Siam, in theory, will have the same voting power as the United States or France or Great Britain.

But of course, it is understood the little nations will stand aside and let the United States, France, Great Britain and Italy decide the program which will be dictated to Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey. All the nations will have voice, however, and those immediately concerned in the settlement—Serbia, Belgium, Roumania and a few others—will be given the utmost consideration by the real powers associated against Germany.

Many of the smaller nations may be represented at the conference only by their ministers at the capital of the country in which the peace parley eventually is held. They may also waive their right to vote except by courtesy.

The suggestion that President Wilson attend and preside over the deliberations of the Peace conference meets with great favor in this country. The President has the matter under consideration but so far has not intimated what his decision will be.

There is no question that he is strongly urged to go. The ground is taken that even if the President felt it would require too long a time away from the United States to remain throughout the conference he might at least attend the opening sessions and thoroughly elucidate the principles he has enunciated and which form the entire basis of the proposed Peace agreements.

Some of the more enthusiastic Senators and Congressmen think that if the President could not go to the conference the conference should be brought to the President. This suggestion is part of a strong movement to hold the Peace conference in Washington. President Wilson having been the chief factor in bringing peace out of chaos, it would seem the natural thing to have the conference at Washington, and to have him preside.

We should think the other nations interested with the United States against Germany would take this view of the matter, and out of courtesy to him, insist that the conference be held in this country.

The President has never expressed himself as to his attitude on the popular demand arising in all the allied countries that condign punishment be meted out to the kaiser and to all German commanders, soldiers and sailors and prison keepers who have been guilty of the more heinous crimes which have marked the conduct of the Hun throughout the war.

This question is sure to arise at the peace table, and Great Britain is expected to take the lead in demanding that certain Germans be yielded up for trial by court martial and punished according to the degree of their crime.

In this connection there was a feeling akin to dismay in some circles in Washington, the other day, to discover in article six of the revised armistice terms this proviso:

"No person shall be prosecuted for offenses of participation of war measures prior to the signing of the armistice."

There was no official explanation of the statement. However, as article six alludes wholly to the evacuation of territory occupied by the enemy, there is a feeling that the clause could only have been intended for the protection of Frenchmen, Belgians and inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine. It is admitted, though, that the clause is ambiguous.

It is said that the government has not been fully advised on the circumstances leading up to the amendment of many of the provisions of the armistice as it was originally cabled to this country.

ANOTHER TRIPLE ALLIANCE DOOMED TO EXTERMINATION NOVEMBER 28

takes his evenings, even for study. She like to get hold of something that would make me deaf to the telephone. I think so too! She is very clever. Say, Brian, what's the matter? I expected you for dinner,"

"I like her so much. I only wish I could help you by earning something."

"You do help me, dear. I guess I am not very different from most men when I say I prefer to work a little harder and have you right where you are, and what you are; my little homekeeper in my home."

It was fortunate that Brian could not hear this conversation. It was too much like the thoughts surging through his brain, after he returned to his lonely apartment.

"She's a dear!" he muttered, referring to Mrs. Roberts. "He's a lucky dog to have a wife who is satisfied with what he can give her. I'm sure they are comfortable, even if they don't have things artistic," the last word he emphasized bitterly.

It was early and he sat down to read. He was in no mood to go to bed, and had no notion to be awake another night. He would read until he was sleepy.

He became very much interested in a magazine article he was reading concerning the war in Europe. For over two years the nations on the other side of the world had been fighting; and from the very first he had been absorbed by the news. He often thought that, had he not been married, he would have volunteered with the Canadians, although he never had mentioned it even to Ruth.

He had been so engrossed that he started when the insistent shrill of the telephone warned him that it must have been ringing some time.

"Hello!" he said as he took off the receiver, wondering who could be calling him at eleven o'clock at night. The clock had just struck the hour.

"Hello Brian!" it was Mollie King's gay voice. "Were you asleep? I have been ringing for the longest time."

"No, I was reading!" "Reading? lend me the book. I'd like to get hold of something that would make me deaf to the telephone.

Say, Brian, what's the matter? I expected you for dinner,"

"I had some business to attend to—see you tomorrow night."

"Must have been awfully important! I called you three or four times. The servant answered, but I couldn't make anything from her talk. Sure you weren't out with some other girl?"

"Sure, Mollie! you know better than to say such a thing. There's no one but you and—I Ruth."

"There'd better not be! I'd be horribly jealous," she laughed, then said good-night after cautioning him not to forget to come to her the next night.

A Powerful Nation Needs Strong Healthy Women.

A nation is no stronger than its women. Hence, it is the duty of every woman whether young, middle age, or in advanced life to preserve her health. If you are sick and suffering don't wait until tomorrow but seek relief at once today. Tomorrow your illness may take a chronic turn.

There is a remedy for almost every ill. Thousands have found Peruna to be that remedy as did Miss Clara Lohr of 21 N. Gold St., Grand Rapids, Michigan. She writes a friend: "I don't need Peruna any more. I am all well after taking six bottles. I weighed ninety pounds before I started and was poor and weakly. I had such a cough and splitting all the time that I never expected to recover. My friends gave me up. I could eat nothing. Now I can eat and weigh 135 pounds. I most thankfully recommend Peruna to my friends."

Miss Lohr's letter is an inspiration, a message of hope to suffering women. It tells you that you too may be strong and well and vigorous.

Peruna may be had in either liquid or tablet form. Ask your druggist. If you value health, do not accept a substitute. Dr. Hartman's Work, Famous Peruna Tongue is what you want. The Peruna Company, Dept. 79, Columbus, Ohio, also publish Dr. Hartman's Health Book. The book is free. Write for it. Your dealer will give you a Peruna Almanac.

WHEN OHIO REJOICES!

All over the State, as county after county joins in celebrating its victory in the sales of War Savings Stamps, the eyes of the people are turned to this county, not yet over the quota.

And while others are rejoicing in the pleasure of a great task well done, a patriotic triumph, are we to stand aside and see the glory from afar, or is this county too to join the victory circle?

Yes, We Will Rejoice Too

Never has our faith wavered that the people of this county, true blue in their Americanism, would reach the full quota.

Perhaps it has been our failure to present the matter in the right light that has caused the delay.

But now we all know that if we are to receive and set up in our Court House the tablet that proves our patriotism we must work harder, and we must buy more stamps.

Resolve here and now that this mark of recognition shall come to this county, and that each of us shall lend to our Government until we win it.

Put aside all other thoughts and in the few days remaining make every one count.

Mrs. Blanche Kester entertained a jolly crowd of masqueraders at her home on South Detroit street, at the first Peace party of the season. Games and music furnished the amusement. One of the features of the evening was a fortune teller, who told all the guests their fortunes. Delicious refreshments were served.

GEORGE R. KELLY,

AT LAST HIT THE BOYS AT ANTIOCH

Influenza has at last made its appearance in Antioch College.

After having been kept away from the students in the Yellow Springs school the malady which seems to have almost spent its force in nearly every other spot in the United States finally reached Antioch and the first victim is Leroy Lee, who was pronounced ill of the infection, Friday.

The lad has been isolated and every precaution has been taken to prevent spread of the malady among the 54 boys of the Student Army Training Corps and other students who have remained in the college during the quarantine period.

The Yellow Springs branch of the Red Cross is busy making gauze masks to be used by nurses and others in case of emergencies.

The quarantining which has been existing at Antioch for five weeks was to have been lifted Monday, but it will continue in effect until danger of an epidemic of the malady is past.

UNITED WAR WORK
CAMPAIGN FAILURE
IN CITY OF XENIA

People of Xenia are you satisfied to have the city miserably fail in the present United War Work Campaign?

At the present time the United War Work Campaign is a failure so far as Xenia city is concerned. Outside of Xenia the country precincts are responding splendidly and everyone of them will go over the top before they quit.

At the close of business Friday night Xenia city had raised exactly $1358. This is only about one-third of the city quota of $12,500. The campaign closes on Monday night. The question is now whether the citizens of Xenia want the city to go on record as having failed in this campaign.

To speak plainly the city failed in its duty in the last Y. M. C. A. campaign, raising only about $4,500 when its quota was around $8,000. On this occasion the country precincts went so far over the top that the county quota was reached. Xenia can not count upon this again. The country precincts will all raise their quotas but they can not be expected to go very far beyond. Xenia city must come through or the county campaign will fall down.

At the present moment only $4,358 has been subscribed and the committee has in sight about $2,000 more which it hopes to get today. Beyond that the committee has little hope of going unless Xenia people wake up and loosen up.

NO HUNTING MISHAPS
REPORTED FIRST DAY OF HUNTING SEASON

Although the fields and woods were full of Nimrods, the opening of the rabbit hunting season Friday passed without any accidental shootings taking place in Greene county.

Experienced hunters say that this will be only a "fair" rabbit season. While in some localities in the country rabbits are plentiful, in other sections the little animals are hard to find. Several parties of hunters returned to the city Friday evening with 20 or 30 rabbits, shot by the crowd, trophies of the day's sport. The law permits the shooting of only ten rabbits by one person.

Most Widely Read Farm Publications in the United States give the Facts on Startling Live Stock Development

"Passed by the Capital Issues Committee as not incompatible with the national interests, but without approval of legality, validity, worth or security. Opinion No. A-434."

"The Country Gentleman" is one of the most widely read farming publications in the United States. It is published by The Curtis Publishing Co., who also publish "The Saturday Evening Post" and "The Ladies' Home Journal," and no one doubts the reliability of this, the greatest publishing house in America.

In "The Country Gentleman" of October 19th, October 26th and November 2d there appeared articles under the head, "THE SOUTH AS THE COMING STOCK LAND OF AMERICA." The thoughtful reader will realize that a revolution has come in live stock production. Here are a few extracts from "The Country Gentleman":

The South Galloping Into Meat Business "The South is fairly galloping into the meat business. It is running ahead of its pork production quota and passing all cattle expectations. As a result, when Europe subsides to peace and undertakes to satisfy that meat appetite with which mess call has branded millions of peasants, the South will not bid against them for every mouthful of animal flesh. Indeed, the South expects to sell them meat, thus fulfilling its natural destiny to become the greatest cheap-meat region in the United States.

"In another article I should like to say something more specific about the South's cattle opportunities, for Dixie is the best hope of home-grown meat for the United States. Cattle fit into all its important problems, and are the solution of most of them, and the South is well aware of it. It is grasping its opportunities rapidly, eagerly.

Nineteen Killing Plants Now in South "Those who want the calmest and most exacting sort of proof of this can find it in the fact that the South is being dotted with killing plants by the packers.

"There are nineteen killing plants in the South under Government inspection. On some of these the hammers are still beating. None are old. That is what the packers think of the South.

"For a moment let's look at sandy, sunny Florida, with its abundance of water and its cheap lands. Despite the fact that the oldest city in the United States is located there, it is still part of the frontier, as regards opportunity. Indeed, George M. Remmel, chief of the Animal Husbandry Division of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, DECLARIES NO OTHER STATE HAS SUCH CATTLE CHANCES.

It has always been a great cattle state and always will be. IT HAS MORE NATURAL ADVANTAGES THAN ANY OTHER STATE IN THE UNITED STATES. Florida has no screw worms, no ear ticks and no coyotes.

Natural Swine Country "The South, which surprised the North and West last summer with its record-price steers, also has hogs. A bunch of Northern swine breeders made this discovery only this year.

"They learned, for instance, that the South is a natural swine country which can produce pork very cheaply because it has the pasture, the feed and the right type of animals.

The Southern Ruralist, W. L. Glassner, Field Representative, says: "While visiting the Florida State Fair at Jacksonville I was struck by the sign over Clay County's exhibit: 'Where big things are being done by big men in a big way with big results.' for I had a few days before I seen some of the big things being done in that county.

"I was impressed with the Walkill Farm as being the most practical demonstration of the possibilities of the live stock industry in the South that I have seen. There is nothing fancy or fussy about this farm — everything is plain and practical, business-like. It shows not only what can be done with wealth, but it contains many lessons of what can be done with small means, for everything is utilized."

"And as the finished demonstration became a visible entity men wondered that so much could have been performed in such a short period. For the essential thing has been accomplished. The way had been made clear for all and sundry to follow. 'Can do' had become 'It is done.'

The Farm and Live Stock Record, Jacksonville, Fla., Recognizes Epoch-Making Operations

the state of Florida.

"Had I not been told better, I should have thought there must have been at least three or four years of activity responsible for the improvements which were visible.

"Here, a little more than a year after the commencement of things, there are more than a thousand head of cattle grazing on the Walkill pastures.

"Hundreds of sleek hogs were visible in the fields.

"Substantial buildings and silos, such as one ordinarily associates with several years of successful farming, reared their outlines against the sky everywhere."

Taken from The Florida Grower, Tampa, Fla. "Yes, Dollings hires brains. But not for and with money alone. He fully appreciates the importance of the personal equation and so well understands that men's best work is done only when their heart interest is enlisted. So he ties men to him and to his enterprises with bonds that endure because they are founded on mutual respect, harmony of interest and fairness of participation alike in opportunity to serve and assurance of profit.

"'Can do.' Unconsciously using the spirit of the favorite expression of my old Chinese friend, Colonel Dollings some years ago indicated to his intimates that he had decided to undertake the solution of the problem of increasing meat production at lower costs than then prevailed.

"Those who were in his confidence know that this determination in no sense was based on snap judgment. On the contrary, it was the result of most careful study and of thorough investigation. Colonel Dollings had secured the opinions of many experts, had checked and counter-checked these, and retained as the foundation of his effort those in which he had found absolute agreement.

Success "Then he began to do things. Not with a flare of trumpets nor an outbreak of publicity, but silently and swiftly. As a matter of fact, his indifference to newspaper notoriety has been the despair of more than one reporter who saw in Colonel Dollings' activities 'copy' of a most excellent character.

"A proposition of such vast importance and great magnitude as this latest undertaking of Colonel Dollings isn't handled in an hour. But never was there a moment's time lost. The preliminary progress may have seemed slow to casual observers, but those 'in the know' saw that it was surprisingly swift.

"And as the finished demonstration became a visible entity men wondered that so much could have been performed in such a short period. For the essential thing has been accomplished. The way had been made clear for all and sundry to follow. 'Can do' had become 'It is done.'

Final Offering of the Walkill Stock Farm 7% Full Participating Preferred Stock

The full Participating feature of The Walkill Stock Farm Preferred Stock gives the holder the opportunity to share in the profits of this remarkable development. Provision is made that after 7% is paid on the Preferred Stock and 7% on the Common Stock, then excess dividends shall be divided equally between the Preferred and Common stockholders. An earning of only $3.00 per acre will pay both the Preferred and Common stock dividends. With the advantages of a long pasture season, heavy forage crops, plenty of labor and ideal market conditions, we feel sure that the profits will far exceed $3.00 per acre.

The management of the Walkill Farm will appeal to Ohio investors. H. B. Minium, one of the Executives, was for nineteen years with Armour & Co., and for eleven years the Manager of all the Armour interests in Florida. J. L. Young, of Circleville, Ohio, one of the most successful farmers in that prosperous county, has charge of the crop production. Sol Miller, of Columbus, Ohio, and known to Duroc Hog Breeders throughout the country, has charge of the Hog Department. Fred Brown, of Circleville, Ohio, has charge of the Sheep Department.

The Walkill Farm consists of 14,000 acres, crossed by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, with two Shipping Stations on the Farm, and these Shipping Stations are only thirty miles from the big Armour Packing Plant at Jacksonville, Fla. There are over eighty miles of Hog-Tight Wire Fence on the Farm.

THIS IS THE FINAL OFFERING—Three-fourths of the Preferred Stock issued has been absorbed by Ohio farmers and business men. It is a safe investment because it is backed by Land, Cattle, Hogs and Sheep. It is a profitable investment because it carries a stipulated dividend easily earned and provides for a further share of the profits. This final announcement will result in the rapid sale of the remainder of the Preferred Stock. If you are interested, do not delay in communicating with us.

BOASTINGS OF KAISER WHEN HE WAS WINNING

London, Nov. 15.—British newspapers give prominence to some of the kaiser's utterances during the war.

In 1916, he said:

"Before the leaves fall from the trees, we shall be back in the dear fatherland. Exterminate first the treacherous French and walk over Gen. French's contemptible little army."

"You, my troops, are my garrison, and can dictate peace to my enemies."

"Up and at the foes."

"God's (Gott's) goodness will guide the German people through battle to victory—to the goal appointed for the German people by providence. I have drawn the sword which, without victory and without honor I can not sheath. To the dust with all the enemies of Germany! Amen."

In 1915 he said:

"Our brave soldiers have shown themselves invincible in battle against nearly the whole world. The war drama, is now coming to its close."

He also said:

"America had better look out after the war. I shall stand no nonsense from the Americans."

"My destructive sword has crushed the Russians. In a short while I will announce new victories. In a just cause I am ready to force myself to be cruel."

In 1916 he said:

"The world was prepared for anything but never for victory of the German fleet over the British. Fear will creep into the bones of the enemy. But west has been taken. What a magnificent success on the road to complete victory."

"With God's (Gott's) help, Germany is invincible in spite of the superior numbers of our enemies, and every day confirms this view. The foe is defending his native soil foot by foot. This is the resistance of despair, but it must be broken. He has prepared his coup, and now he must sup it."

"All Germany contemplates with pride her brave sons whose 'deeds, with God's (Gott's) help, will be a land mark on the road to final victory."

In 1917 he said:

"If the enemy does not want peace then we must bring peace by battering in with the front fist and shining sword the doors of those who will not have peace. Victory in the coming year will again be on our side and that of our allies."

FIRE OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN DESTROYS A DAYTON FACTORY

Dayton, Nov. 16.—Fire of an undetermined origin which broke out about 9:30 o'clock last night, practically destroyed the plant of the Monarch Engineering Company, First and Canal streets, and caused a loss estimated at $150,000. Insurance of about three-fourths the loss was carried.

The plant, a three-story brick, seemed to be a mass of flames inside when the first contingent of men arrived.

From the windows there issued dense volume of hot, black smoke, making the combat a very unequal one for a half hour or more. Slowly the firemen gained on the blaze and in about one and a half hours had the blaze under control. This however, was not accomplished until the loss on building and machinery had run into the thousands of dollars.

GERMANY OWES TO FRANCE SIXTY EIGHT BILLION DOLLARS

Paris, Nov. 16.—Le Matin declares that Germany owes France $68,000,000,000. The bill is rendered as follows:

Cost of war ..... $28,000,000,000

Reparation ..... 20,000,000,000

Pensions ..... 8,000,000,000

Return of the 1871-demands ..... 1,000,000,000

Interest on same ..... 11,000,000,000

Total ..... $68,000,000,000

OUTPOSTS ENTER BRUSSELS.

Paris, Nov. 16.—(12:10 P. M.)—Belgian outposts entered Brussels this morning.

German cavalry occupied Brussels Aug. 20, 1914, the Belgian army retreating toward Antwerp, without engaging the enemy. The Germans issued a formal proclamation, taking over the city, and outlining what the inhabitants would be permitted to do.

The previous day many of the people had fled to Ghent. There were no hostile demonstrations against the army of occupation.

BRUTAL OFFICERS TO BE PLACED ON TRIAL

Paris, Nov. 16.—As a result of investigations made in Lille and region of the Department of the North, precise charges have been made out against German officers guilty of having ordered or of having themselves committed shocking crimes.

In the presence of evidence that has been revealed by a commission of inquiry, the under secretary of state at the ministry of justice, has ordered that criminal proceedings be instituted against the German officers in question. They will be tried by court-martial in their absence if the allies are unable to secure their arrest, but whatever sentence may be passed will remain valid.

GERMANY CRIES FOR AN EARLY PEACE PARLEY

Washington, Nov. 16.—While Germany continues its efforts to force an early peace conference, this government is giving serious thought to selection of peace delegates and final consideration of peace terms, along with current problems of reconstruction.

The whole subject of peace and reconstruction are closely interwoven in the government's considerations. It finds itself almost without a framework of reconstruction.

Hence, there is some disposition here to hasten the peace solution so that the reconstruction problem will be the more quickly clarified.

Germany has wirelessed another of her series of peace proposals for quick assembling of delegates for a change of armistice terms.

She pointed to the imminence of hunger as a reason for an early peace session and argued hardships would be caused by the provisions for returning Germans from Turkey.

This government is giving serious thought to the feeding of the central empires but does not propose to be hurried into a peace session by the Teuton pleas. In fact, the German notes are beginning to be regarded as a drug on the market, as evidenced by Secretary Lansing's notice to Germany that she must deal with all the allies, not alone with the United States.

Neither the White House or State Department has given any official expression concerning the peace conference. No time has been set and the government is steadfastly keeping its own council.

In addition to President Wilson and Turkish forces shall be withdrawn behind the pre-war frontier.

In Syria and Salicia, all forces shall be withdrawn west of the Baalbek by December 15. Demobilization shall immediately follow. The forces in Northern Syria and along the railway as far as Missis shall surrender all their artillery, machine guns and ammunition by Nov. 15. The question of administration of the area east and southeast of Taurus shall be taken into consideration. In Arabia the difficulty of communicating with Turkish commanders in the hinterland is being overcome."

HOLLAND MONARCHY IS THREATENED BY THE BOLSHEVIK

Washington, Nov. 16.—Information reaching here from official sources indicates that the situation in Holland is causing grave apprehension and that the presence there of the former German emperor with members of his family and some of his strongest supporters may so inflame the people as to endanger that monarchy.

While it is true, it was pointed out, that the former kaiser is practically a prisoner, he is not the prisoner of any of his foes. It was suggested that the immediate fate of the ex-kaiser is of little moment compared with other affairs in Europe and it is confidently believed the effect of his presence upon an already disturbed state in the Netherlands is that he is the object of concern among allied statesmen.

Bolshevism apparently has taken root in Holland. Before the war the relations between the Dutch and German courts were very close and it is suggested that the Bolsheviks may see in the presence of the former ruler of Germany an excuse to precipitate an uprising against the queen.

PRESIDENT IS CERTAIN TO GO TO CONFERENCE

London, Nov. 16.—That President Wilson will attend the peace conference is a practical certainty, the Evening News asserts today.

SCCHOOL CHILDREN AND PADRE CHEER ALLIED SOLDIERS WHO CAPTURE OSTEND AND LIBERATE TOWN FROM GERMANS

School children and teacher at Ostend cheering allied troops.

The youngsters in the photo were marching to the school classes, accompanied by the kindly padre, when the victorious allied troops swept into Ostend, driving the hated Germans out. The way these tots are cheering and waving flags shows that they realized what the deliverance meant. The padre has forgotten his troubles for a while and is cheering and waving a flag.

MORE DETAILS OF THE TURKISH ARMISTICE TERMS

London, Nov. 16.—Further details of the Turkish armistice are contained in an official statement, as follows:

In order to secure compliance with the armistice terms, the Turkish government will carry out in Mesopotamia complete evacuation of the Mosul Vilayet, surrender of all artillery, ammunition and government supplies above normal needs for the units, the town of Mosul shall be cleared by Nov. 19, and British political officers shall be appointed to control the administration of the Gendarmerie.

Neither the White House or State

Department has given any official expression concerning the peace conference. No time has been set and the government is steadfastly keeping its own council.

In addition to President Wilson and Turkish forces shall be withdrawn behind the pre-war frontier.

In Syria and Salicia, all forces shall be withdrawn west of the Baalbek by December 15. Demobilization shall immediately follow. The forces in Northern Syria and along the railway as far as Missis shall surrender all their artillery, machine guns and ammunition by Nov. 15.

The question of administration of the area east and southeast of Taurus shall be taken into consideration. In Arabia the difficulty of communicating with Turkish commanders in the hinterland is being overcome."

BRIBE OFFERED TO VENIZELOS BY THE GERMAN MINISTER

London, November 16.—Elipherios Venizelos, Prime Minister of Greece, speaking in London, referred to a conversation he had at the beginning of the war with the German Minister in Athens. The German Minister had come to him because he was aware of the declaration of M. Venizelos that if Bulgaria attacked Serbia, Greece would go to the assistance of her ally.

"The Minister showed the great danger Greece would run if she carried out her plan, because she would have opposed to her not only Bulgaria, but Germany," said M. Venizelos.

"I replied that I was exceedingly sorry to hear that, but it was our duty to go to the assistance of our ally and we would carry out that duty."

"The German Minister then asked me if in going to Serbia's assistance I was looking forward to any benefits that might accrue to Greece. I replied, 'No.' He then said, 'but if Greece will remain neutral we are in a position to give her very great and substantial benefits.'

"I asked what were the benefits Germany would offer us. I put that question, knowing what the answer would be, but I wished it to come from him. He replied: 'Germany will give you Monastir and as much more of Serbia as you want.'

"I said to the Minister: 'You will

FINAL TRIMMINGS OF WORLD WAR BEING PUT ON FASTER THAN EXPECTED

By William Phillip Simms.

Paris, Nov. 16.—The final trimmings of the war are being put on faster than anybody had hoped.

While the Germans are apparently making every effort to expedite their evacuation, workmen are busy at Versailles arranging the palace for the peace conference.

The villa of mirrors, where the principal sessions are scheduled to be held, is being decorated. It is proposed to lodge the delegates in the Grand Trianon, which was built for Madame de Maintenon, Morganatic wife of Louis XIV.

Versailles is a favorite place for the signing of peace treaties. Great Britain and the American colonies ratified their peace there September 3, 1783. On the same day Great Britain, France and Spain signed a treaty restoring certain colonial possessions to the French. Preliminaries of the treaty ending the Franco-Prussian war were accepted there Feb. 26, 1871.

Public interest in the announcement by the newspapers that President Wilson is coming is shown by the almost daily rumors that he will arrive in a few days.

Numerous jubilees have been planned similar to the impromptu one following the signing of the armistice.

The first of these will be held Sunday in honor of the return of the "Lost Provinces." These will follow the reoccupation of Metz and Strasbourg.

The munition factories are buzzing on to provide work for the out-of-a-job multitude, but quick transformation of them for the manufacture of peace products is planned. The ministry of Armaments, which is setting the pace in this regard, probably will become the ministry of reconstruction.

REPUBLICANS ARE AGAINST LOWERING THE TAX REVENUE

Washington, Nov. 16.—Opposition by several Republicans to Secretary McAdoo's plan to lower the excess profits rates of the revenue bill and in the tax on individual incomes will lead to a fight on the floor before the bill becomes a law, according to indications here today.

McAdoo's suggestion that the bill should also place the maximum sum to be raised in 1920 at $4,000,000,000 also aroused some republican opposition.

They contend it is impossible to forecast so far ahead and hint it is desired to prevent an extra spring session of congress which will be controlled by the Republicans.

The German government requested the president to intervene in favor of German civilians remaining in Turkey.

Berlin, via London, Nov. 16.—Former Secretary Solf has sent the following wireless message to Secretary Lansing:

"Fulfillment of clause 19 of the Anglo-Turkish armistice—that German civilians shall leave Turkey immediately—will cause severe hardship."

"It appears unreasonable, that after conclusion of an universal armistice, German blind and orphan hospitals should be compelled to close, causing new sufferings for the Christian populations."

"The German government requested the president to intervene in favor of German civilians remaining in Turkey."

Michigan, where Republicans gain

one representative, would have Rep. Fortney as chairman of the ways and means committee.

The passing of the seniority rule would not necessarily mean a deal all around," it was pointed out.

Representative Kahn, of California, would be chairman of the committee on military affairs, and Rep. Beck, Wisconsin, of the state commerce committee, would handle legislation on government control of the railroads and roads.

Buenos Aires, Nov. 16.—Following a political quarrel, deputy Flores D'Acuña shot Deputy Macedo Soares, publisher of the newspaper Imparcial, in the head.

GREAT BODY OF MEN WILL BE DISCHARGED THE NEXT TWO WEEKS

Washington, Nov. 16.—Demobilization orders already issued, will care for the discharge of 200,000 men within the next two weeks in this country. As the machinery develops the army can discharge 30,000 men a day.

These facts developed from Chief of Staff March's press conference to-day.

No more troops will be sent over seas March announced.

Marsh has ordered General Pershing to return to the United States as soon as transports are available, casual, convalescent, sick and wounded, before the steady flow of the larger bodies begins.

Demobilization orders already out contemplate demobilization of troops in this country in this order:

First, development battalions, 71 in number, containing 98,99 men; second, conscientious objectors not under sentence; third, spruce producers; fourth, central training schools for officers; fifth, United States guards, 135,000 on paper; sixth, railroad troops; seventh, depot brigades; eighth, men in replacement camps and ninth, men in combat divisions.

March said there are 1,700,000 men in the United States camps and that it will take some time to muster them out, as physical examinations must be made and records sent to the war risk and other bureaus.

The orders already issued take care of 200,000 who March added, should be out within the next two weeks.

In making the demobilizations, the war department is taking into account the needs of a regular army for the future. Men will be offered an opportunity to re-enlist. The war department will ask congress that every man honorably discharged shall get one month's pay as a bonus. All discharged soldiers can

HIGH SCHOOL SING IS GREATLY ENJOYED

The patriotic sing given by the boys' and girls' chorus of the High School, under the direction of Miss Harriet McCarty, delighted a large audience.

The orchestra composed of Grace Lyle, Irene Parrot, Ralph Donges, violinists, Edwin Reutlinger, drums, and Clarence Norris, pianist, gave an entertaining prelude.

Miss Helen Sayre told the story and history of the writing of "America," by Samuel F. Smith, and the audience joined with the chorus in singing it.

Six "Folk Songs" of the allied nations were sung by the chorus: "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," English; "All Through The Night," Welsh; "Annie Laurie," Scotch; "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms," Irish; "Santa Lucia," Italian; "Swanee River," United States.

The story of the song was given by Wm. Moore. The Boys' Quartette, composed of Earl Hartsock, Robert Hurley, Alfred Casad and Heber Tullis, sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and brought out a hearty applause, responding with "When the War Is Over."

Miss Elizabeth Galloway pictured to the audience the beauty of and love we owe to the Service Flag, which was a beautiful tribute.

The freshman class sang four songs and Rev. Spahr in a spicy manner pressed home the question "What kind of an American are you?" Ross Macaulay gave "Following the Boys Over There," and Louise Clark sang "God Be With Our Boys To-night."

The chorus gave two trench songs, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and "Dixie," the stories being told by Martha Wilson and Helen Barnes.

Earl Hartsock forcefully presented "The Light of Liberty," portraying liberty in its highest and noblest sense, and the boys' chorus followed in a rousing manner with Harry Lauder's song "From The North, South, East and West."

A quartette composed of Lois Gartrell, Edna Custis, Robert Hurley and Heber Tullis sang the song of England "Rule, Britannia."

Miss Gartrell sang in her own pleasing way, "Marseillaise" in French. Margaret Davis told how the "Star Spangled Banner" came to be written and how truly American it is.

The High School service flag consisting of 150 blue stars was displayed on the platform.

The school and audience closed with the National Anthem. The school on the closing chorus waved a multitude of flags on the platform.

A fine of $50 is fixed for every day the provisions of the new ordinances regulating length and height of awnings and limiting sidewalk displays and obstructions by merchants, are disregarded after a "reasonable" length of time in which to comply with them has passed.

Little Katherine had made her home with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, for the last fifteen months. She leaves father and mother, two brothers, Harold aged 10, and Robert aged 7, besides a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Her devotion to those with whom she was associated will cause her to be greatly missed. Her sweet disposition and kind words won for her the affection of all. God has deemed in his wise providence to take from our midst a flower of youth. Heaven will be brighter because of her presence. There is nothing to lose but everything to gain. May the mantle of this pure life fall across our pathway, that Christ's Kingdom on earth may be brighter because of the joy, peace and righteousness here below.

Use of Sealing Wax.

The use of wax for the sealing of letters and parcels did not become general until the middle ages. Beeswax, rendered yellow by time, was the first material used. Then came sealing wax mixed with a white substance. Red wax began with Louis VI, in 1113, and green wax made its appearance about the year 1163. In the thirteenth century, yellow, brown, rose, black and blue were added to the foregoing colors. Black wax was generally met with in the seals of the military and religious orders. Finally gummed envelope gradually began to replace sealing wax. The first envelopes, which were manufactured in England, date back to 1810.

Mrs. Jones Tells How PEPSINCO Helped Her Stomach!

I just suffered everything. Nothing agreed with me at all. A few minutes after eating I had pain, sourness and as a rule would belch bad tasting stuff.

I tried doctors; I tried medicines; all without effect. Pepsinco was recommended. I honestly believe that I can thank Pepsinco for my good health to-day.

I can eat anything and I am without pain. I would suggest that if there is anything wrong with your stomach, that you go to any drug store and get a small package of Pepsinco.

The above is a testimonial from a party who followed the advice of a friend. Suppose you do the same.

WILL THERE BE ANOTHER LIBERTY LOAN?

The question has been asked frequently since the signing of the armistice: "Will there be another Liberty Loan?" Here's the answer.

Keeping order in Europe, now that the war is ended, is going to be the biggest police job this old world has ever known.

But it will have to be done.

For there are about 10,000,000 fellows scattered about the continent right now who have acquired the fighting habit these last five years. They were getting tired of the big game before it ended, but this doesn't mean that they would hesitate to mix up over their own little differences.

Take the Balkans, for instance. They have been a hot-bed of disturbance for years. The immediate pretext for this war developed there. And their old time animosities and jealousies have not been wiped out by their recent experiences. They are liable to flare out again at any moment.

Then there is the big question of Russia. There are millions of former serfs still drunk with the wine of new-found freedom. They have pillaged and plundered and killed without restraint for months. The whole nation is still seething. And order must be restored there before any permanent and rational government can be established.

And just what Turkey will have to offer the allies to the complication of affairs in general is yet to be developed.

There are some pretty long beats to be patrolled in this police job. It's a long, long way from Vladivostok to Petrograd. From Petrograd to Bagdad, and from the Holy Land to that near neighbor of hell, Berlin.

It looks like a big lot of Uncle Sam's soldier boys might be kept in Europe for many months to come, and they will have to be maintained adequately.

Inevitably it means another Liberty Loan at least. It may mean two.

TAKE DOWN AWNINGS

The following letter has been sent to all persons who are maintaining awnings or sidewalk displays, in violation of the recently approved awning ordinances. This publication must be regarded as official notification to remove such obstructions to persons who may for any reason fail to receive a letter ordering the removal of such obstructions.

Dear Sir:

This is to notify all persons who are responsible for any conditions which are in violation of ordinances 38 and 39 which relate to the display of goods, merchandise, etc., on the sidewalks and to the erection and maintenance of awnings that they are liable to a fine of $50.00. Each day's continued violation is a separate offense.

The City Commission has instructed the City Manager to enforce the provisions of these ordinances, which are now effective. The Manager whose duty it is will be very glad and willing to co-operate in every way possible to assist in bringing about the required changes.

The ordinances are now effective, but a reasonable length of time will be allowed to comply therewith. Of course you will appreciate the fact that the displays on the sidewalks can be removed at once, while the awnings can be conveniently removed within a week or two.

Your co-operation and willingness in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
KENYON RIDDLE,
City Manager.

NEED FOR Y. M. C. A. AND K. OF C. WORK IS GREATER NOW THAN IT WAS BEFORE

BY REV. HIBBARD J. JEWETT
Pastor of Trinity Methodist Church

The war is over—but we do not know when the boys will come home from the Camps and from across the seas. The war is over, but it yet may be lost. If the American people do not make possible the full purpose for which we entered the war, it will be lost, and the precious lives of our dead will have been in vain.

The world must be made safe for free peoples to live in security. Then we dare not turn it over to anarchy for the Allies not to make possible the establishment of orderly, responsible governments in the war-torn countries of Europe would be to lose the war after it is won. This means some sort of protection, guidance, education for the more helpless and ignorant peoples made free by the war. While these peoples are learning to use their new freedom, our boys with their brother-soldiers from the Allied countries must stay there for a period of time. Then shall we abandon them while they are doing the big-brother part in protecting these peoples and maintaining the victories already won? Every true and noble-hearted American says, No!

With the cessation or active warfare moral discipline is bound to relax and our American youth will be in greater temptation. The need for the home-hut of the Y. M. C. A. and the K. of C. and the helpful, inspiring service of the other religious associations united in this campaign for funds to support their work will be greater than ever before. We must help them to make our soldier-boys brave and strong in true Christian morale.

We want to help France and Belgium, and the other countries in the re-construction work, both in the rebuilding of the waste places of their lands and in being an inspiration in Christian service to their war-weary souls. While their hearts are open with gratitude to the United States for the gracious services rendered by its religious organizations during the war let us enter and do them lasting good.

It is the hope of the leaders of the Young Men's Christian Association to establish many of its secretaries in permanent service in the war-broken countries of Europe, where the peoples' hearts are now so open to Christian-American influence. What a fine prospect that is. Then, the government of the United States has put in the hands of the Association a great program of education for the American soldiers, so that every boy will have the opportunity of splendid equipment for the work which he wants to enter when he comes home. Therefore we must help these organizations in this United War Work Campaign go over the top to victory. Here we have an opportunity to make America's name blessed forever in the hearts of our boys and among the nations. Let us do it, that the victories won by the boys who shed their blood there may not be lost.

HIBBARD J. JEWETT.

MRS. MEREDITH TO SING AT BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY*LUNGS GREW WORSE IN STATE HOSPITAL

Mr. Randall promptly got well at home. Passes strict examination.

"Three years ago I was afflicted with tuberculosis of the lungs. I was finally sent to the State Tuberculosis Hospital at Rockville, Ind., where I remained three months, getting worse all the time, and I persuaded the doctors to let me go home. I was then reduced to 122 pounds, had fever all the time, and was very weak.

"As soon as I got home, I started taking Milks Emulsion. I commenced to improve at once. In a few months, I was back to 140 pounds and began to regain my health. Since then I have been employed by Valentine & Co. meat packers and am able to pass the strict medical examination necessary in this line of work, showing I am in perfect health." —Sam Randall, 521 So. 17th St., Terre Haute, Ind.

Hundreds of people just as badly afflicted as Mr. Randall was, tell this same story. Why not try it? If you are not satisfied with the benefit, it costs nothing.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, driving away with all need of pills and physic. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee: Take a bottle home with you and if, according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Sayre & Hemphill.

TWO ADDITIONAL DIRECTORS OF THE H. & A. ARE ELECTED

At the recent annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hoover & Allison Company two additional directors were elected in the persons of W. C. Hallisy and George E. Hudson, thus making the Board consist of seven members instead of five as heretofore.

This recognition of the new members is due to their long and faithful service in the interest of the Company as well as to the need of a larger board to consider and deal with the larger business the Company is constantly doing. To handle this intelligent new departments have been established and old ones more clearly defined.

In the new management Mr. Hallisy will be in full charge of the production and management of the mills here and elsewhere as well as the purchase of material and supplies for all. Mr. Hudson has been elected Treasurer and will be in charge of the finances and general office management. Mr. W. M. Rathrauff will be in charge of sales and dispose of the Company's product, while the general management will continue as heretofore with the President.

The Company's prospects were never brighter and with its large and well established trade the opportunity for a larger business is most encouraging.

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists

WHEN OHIO REJOICES!

All over the State, as county after county joins in celebrating its victory in the sales of War Savings Stamps, the eyes of the people are turned to this county, not yet over the quota.

And while others are rejoicing in the pleasure of a great task well done, a patriotic triumph, are we to stand aside and see the glory from afar, or is this county too to join the victory circle?

Yes, We Will Rejoice Too

Never has our faith wavered that the people of this county, true blue in their Americanism, would reach the full quota.

Perhaps it has been our failure to present the matter in the right light that has caused the delay.

But now we all know that if we are to receive and set up in our Court House the tablet that proves our patriotism

we must work harder, and we must buy more stamps.

Resolve here and now that this mark of recognition shall come to this county, and that each of us shall lend to our Government until we win it.

Put aside all other thoughts and in the few days remaining make every one count.

Talk War Savings Stamps!

PEACE PARTY HELD AT KESTER HOME

Mrs. Blanche Kester entertained a jolly crowd of masqueraders at her home on South Detroit street, at the first Peace party of the season. The house was decorated in red, white and blue, and hidden amidst the flags was a liberty bell, which kept ringing throughout the evening to remind the folks that peace has come. Games and music furnished the amusement. One of the features of the evening was a fortune teller, who told all the guests their fortunes. Delicious refreshments were served.

INFLUENZA HAS AT LAST HIT THE BOYS AT ANTIOTH

Influenza has at last made its appearance in Antioch College.

After having been kept away from the students in the Yellow Springs school the malady which seems to have almost spent its force in nearly every other spot in the United States finally reached Antioch and the first victim is Leroy Lee, who was pronounced ill of the infection, Friday.

The lad has been isolated and every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the malady among the 54 boys of the Student Army Training Corps and other students who have remained in the college during the quarantine period.

The Yellow Springs branch of the Red Cross is busy making gauze masks to be used by nurses and others in case of emergencies.

The quarantine which has been existing at Antioch for five weeks was to have been lifted Monday, but it will continue in effect until danger of an epidemic of the malady is past.

UNITED WAR WORK CAMPAIGN FAILURE IN CITY OF XENIA

People of Xenia are you satisfied to have the city miserably fail in the present United War Work Campaign? At the present time the United War Work Campaign is a failure so far as Xenia city is concerned. Outside of Xenia the country precincts are responding splendidly and everyone of them will go over the top before they quit.

At the close of business Friday night Xenia city had raised exactly $1358. This is only about one-third of the city quota of $12,500. The campaign closes on Monday night. The question is now whether the citizens of Xenia wants the city to go on record as having failed in this campaign. To speak plainly the city failed in its duty in the last Y. M. C. A. campaign, raising only about $4,500 when its quota was around $8,000. On this occasion the country precincts went so far over the top that the county quota was reached. Xenia can not count upon this again. The country precincts will all raise their quotas but they can not be expected to go very far beyond. Xenia city must come through or the county campaign will fall down.

At the present moment only $4,358 has been subscribed and the committee has in sight about $2,000 more which it hopes to get today. Beyond that the committee has little hope of going unless Xenia people wake up and loosen up.

XMAS PACKAGES MAY

Further particulars will be given later as they are received.

Mailing date Christmas parcels extended November thirtieth. Arrangements made through Red Cross to furnish additional labels for use, by November twenty first, under regulations which will be given by letter to each chapter.

NO HUNTING MISHAPS REPORTED FIRST DAY OF HUNTING SEASON

Although the fields and woods were full of Nimrods, the opening of the rabbit hunting season Friday passed without any accidental shootings taking place in Greene county.

Experienced hunters say that this will be only a "fair" rabbit season. While in some localities in the country rabbits are plentiful, in other sections the little animals are hard to find. Several parties of hunters returned to the city Friday evening with 20 or 30 rabbits, shot by the crowd, trophies of the day's sport. The law permits the shooting of only ten rabbits by one person.

PLAN TO ATTEND THE BIBLE HOURS

Plan to attend the Bible Hours in the First Reformed church, Nov. 20-30, opening Wednesday evening, led by Mr. Geo. E. Guille, of Chicago. He is also one of the loveliest Christian gentlemen it has ever been my privilege to meet." Come and hear him. The hours are free, and no plea will be made for money.

Most Widely Read Farm Publications in the United States give the Facts on Startling Live Stock Development

"Passed by the Capital Issues Committee as not incompatible with the national interests, but without approval of legality, validity, worth or security. Opinion No. A-434."

"The Country Gentleman" is one of the most widely read farming publications in the United States. It is published by The Curtis Publishing Co., who also publish "The Saturday Evening Post" and "The Ladies' Home Journal," and no one doubts the reliability of this, the greatest publishing house in America.

In "The Country Gentleman" of October 19th, October 26th and November 2d there appeared articles under the head, "THE SOUTH AS THE COMING STOCK LAND OF AMERICA." The thoughtful reader will realize that a revolution has come in live stock production. Here are a few extracts from "The Country Gentleman":

The South Galloping Into Meat Business "The South is fairly galloping into the meat business. It is running ahead of its pork production quota and passing all cattle expectations. As a result, when Europe subsides to peace and undertakes to satisfy that meat appetite with which mess call has branded millions of peasants, the South will not bid against them for every mouthful of animal flesh. Indeed, the South expects to sell them meat, thus fulfilling its natural destiny to become the greatest cheap-meat region in the United States.

"In another article I should like to say something more specific about the South's cattle opportunities, for Dixie is the best hope of home-grown meat for the United States. Cattle fit into all its important problems, and are the solution of most of them, and the South is well aware of it. It is grasping its opportunities rapidly, eagerly.

Nineteen Killing Plants Now in South "Those who want the calmest and most exacting sort of proof of this can find it in the fact that the South is being dotted with killing plants by the packers.

"There are nineteen killing plants in the South under Government inspection. On some of these the hammers are still beating. None are old. That is what the packers think of the South.

"For a moment let's look at sandy, sunny Florida, with its abundance of water and its cheap lands. Despite the fact that the oldest city in the United States is located there, it is still part of the frontier, as regards opportunity. Indeed, George M. Rommel, chief of the Animal Husbandry Division of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, DECLARAS NO OTHER STATE HAS SUCH CATTLE CHANCES.

IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN A GREAT CATTLE STATE AND IT HAS MORE NATURAL ADVANTAGES THAN ANY OTHER STATE IN THE UNITED STATES. Florida has no screw worms, no ear ticks and no coyotes.

Natural Country "The South, which surprised the North and West last summer with its record-prize steers, also has hogs. A bunch of Northern swine breeders made this discovery only this year.

"They learned, for instance, that the South is a natural swine country which can produce pork very cheaply because it has the pasture, the feed and the right type of animals.

The Southern Ruralist, W. L. Cleamer, Field Representative of Atlanta, Ga., says: "While visiting the Florida State Fair at Jacksonville I was struck by the sign over Clay County's exhibit: 'Where big things are being done by big men in a big way with big results.' For I had a few days before I seen some of the big things being done in that county.

"I was impressed with the Walkill Farm as being the most practical demonstration of the possibilities of the live stock industry in the South that I have seen. There is nothing fancy or fussy about this farm — everything is plain and practical, business-like. It shows not only what can be done with wealth, but it contains many lessons of what can be done with small means, for everything is utilized."

The Farm and Live Stock Record, Jacksonville, Fla., Recognizes Epoch-Making Operations

"On November 5, 1916, Walkill was practically 14,000 acres of wild land. Beginning on that day were the first of the epoch-making operations which are making Dollings and Walkill a popular topic for conversation in the state of Florida.

"Had I not been told better, I should have thought there must have been at least three or four years of activity responsible for the improvements which were visible.

"Here, a little more than a year after the commencement of things, there are over a thousand head of cattle grazing on the Walkill pastures.

"Hundreds of sleek hogs were visible in the fields.

"Substantial buildings and silos, such as one ordinarily associates with several years of successful farming, reared their outlines against the sky everywhere."

Taken from The Florida Grower, Tampa, Fla.

"Yes, Dollings hires brains. But not for and with money alone. He fully appreciates the importance of the personal equation and so well understands that men's best work is done only when their heart interest is enlisted. So he ties men to him and to his enterprises with bonds that endure because they are founded on mutual respect, harmony of interest and fairness of participation alike in opportunity to serve and assurance of profit.

"'Can do.' Unconsciously using the spirit of the favorite expression of my old Chinese friend, Colonel Dollings some years ago dedicated to his intimates that he had decided to undertake the solution of the problem of increasing meat production at lower costs than then prevailed."

"Those who were in his confidence know that this determination in no sense was based on snap judgment. On the contrary, it was the result of most careful study and of thorough investigation. Colonel Dollings had secured the opinions of many experts, had checked and counter-checked these, and retained as the foundation of his effort those in which he had found absolute agreement.

Success "Then he began to do things. Not with a flare of trumpets nor an outbreak of publicity, but silently and swiftly. As a matter of fact, his indifference to newspaper notoriety has been the despair of more than one reporter who saw in Colonel Dollings' activities 'copy' of a most excellent character.

"A proposition of such vast importance and great magnitude as this latest undertaking of Colonel Dollings isn't handled in an hour. But never was there a moment's time lost. The preliminary progress may have seemed slow to casual observers, but those 'in the know' saw that it was surprisingly swift.

"And as the finished demonstration became a visible entity men wondered that so much could have been performed in such a short period. For the essential thing has been accomplished. The way had been made clear for all and sundry to follow. 'Can do' had become 'It is done.'
